

40B General Deed Restrictions for Affordable Unit Homeowners

Homeowners who bought an affordable home under Chapter 40B, the Massachusetts Comprehensive Permit Law, sign a deed rider when they purchased, which describes the responsibilities under this affordable housing program.

As the monitoring agent for your affordable housing unit, Citizens' Housing and Planning Association (CHAPA) is responsible for ensuring that you comply with the terms of your deed rider. CHAPA is a non-profit, statewide organization whose mission is to encourage the production and preservation of housing that is affordable to low and moderate-income individuals and families.

A general description of important deed restrictions are as follows:

- Principal Residence: The property must be your principal residence, where you regularly live, eat, sleep, are registered to vote, etc.
- Leasing: You may not rent or lease your home without the prior written consent of CHAPA.
- Refinancing: You must get approval from CHAPA if you wish to refinance your mortgage or obtain a second mortgage.
- Capital Improvements: You must contact CHAPA if you would like to make capital improvements to your home.
- Notice to Town and Monitoring Agency When Selling the Home: If you want to sell your home, you must notify the town and CHAPA.

More detailed information on your responsibilities and CHAPA's role is included in this packet. This document is intended to be informational only and is not a substitute for independent legal advice.
