NOFA Released for Gateway Housing Rehabilitation Program

Earlier this month, DHCD released a NOFA for a new Gateway Housing Rehabilitation Program. The program will support the rehabilitation of distressed multifamily properties for households with low- to middle-incomes in Gateway Cities or similar communities. DHCD will make $3 million available for the program. Applications are due October 31.

DHCD Seeks Comments on AHVP Regulations

DHCD is undertaking a review of regulations governing the Alternative Housing Voucher Program (AHVP). DHCD will host a meeting to discuss the regulation on Wednesday, October 30, with comments due by November 8. More information, including how to RSVP for the meeting, is available at the link above.

DHCD Releases Draft 2020-2021 QAP

On September 25th, DHCD released a draft of the 2020-2021 Qualified Allocation Plan \(QAP\). The plan determines how DHCD distributes the Low Income Housing Tax Credit and other affordable housing bond programs. Proposed changes to the QAP include raising the minimum requirement for extremely low income housing from 10% to 13% and changing design and scope requirements to encourage green, sustainable, and climate resilient design.

Attorney General Issues Bid Protest Decision on Public Construction Bidding Laws

Last month, the Attorney General's Office issued a bid protest opinion, finding that public construction bidding laws do not apply to the rehabilitation of a privately owned affordable housing development in Springfield. CHAPA filed a brief on behalf of the development.

Federal Updates

Federal Budget Funded Through November 21

In September, Congress passed a Continuing Resolution (CR) to fund the federal government through November 21. The CR continues FY2019 funding levels for the majority of affordable housing and community development programs. The House and Senate will need to pass the federal spending bills to avoid another government shutdown in November.

Recent Research

JCHS Documents the Decline in Low-Cost Rental Units

A working paper from the Joint Center for Housing Studies documents a significant decline in low-cost rental units over the past three decades that has exacerbated housing affordability pressures faced by low-income renters.

Study Examines First-Year Implementation of Small Area FMRs

A report by the Poverty & Race Research Action Council evaluates the implementation of the Small Area Fair Market Rents (FMRs) rule in its first full year. The report argues that public housing agencies could implement the rule in ways that better advance the goal of expanding housing access for Housing Choice Voucher recipients in high-rent neighborhoods.

Policy Committee Updates

Homelessness Committee

Last month, Amy Mullen of DHCD provided updates on the progress and implementation of the rent arrearage program. Since the program began in August, it has served 134 households, helping them with back rent or mortgage payments. For more information on this meeting and this committee, please visit our website.

Production & Preservation Committee

The Committee discussed progress on Housing Production and Housing Choice legislation, heard updates on the (then) pending bid protest decision from the Attorney General's Office, and shared comments on the Draft 2020-2021 QAP. For more information on this meeting and this committee, please visit our website.

Public Housing & Rental Assistance Committee

Donna Brown-Rego of MassNAHRO discussed the recent successful state budget campaign for public housing and the first significant increase for public housing operating subsidy in a decade. Amy Stitely and Ben Stone of DHCD also spoke about plans for public housing in the coming year. For more information on this meeting and this committee, please visit our website.
