

MASSACHUSETTS EVICTION DIVERSION PLEDGE

In November 2020, the Baker-Polito Administration, MassHousing, Citizens' Housing & Planning Association (CHAPA), and the Massachusetts Association of Community Development Organizations (MACDC) announced a five-point Eviction Diversion Pledge, a commitment from Massachusetts property owners and operators to working with tenants facing financial difficulties because of the pandemic and supporting housing stability during the ongoing fight against the spread of COVID-19. As of January 5th, 2021, 67 property owners committed to the Pledge, representing 140,895 homes across the Commonwealth.

If you own rental housing, please join these affordable housing owners and developers in signing this pledge to work with tenants who have fallen behind on rent:

Asian Community Development Corporation
Beacon Communities
Berkshire Housing Development Corporation
Birchwood Sustainable Development
B'nai B'rith Housing
Capstone Communities
Caritas Communities
Codman Square Neighborhood Development Corporation
Community Development Partnership
Dorchester Bay Economic Development Corporation
EA Fish Development LLC
Fenway Community Development Corporation
First Realty Management
Harborlight Community Partners
Hebrew SeniorLife
Hilltown Community Development Corporation
Home City Development, Inc.
Homeowners Rehab, Inc.
Housing Families, Inc.
Housing Nantucket
Inquilinos Boricuas en Acción (IBA)
Jamaica Plain Neighborhood Development Corporation
Just-A-Start Corporation
Lawrence Community Works
Lena Park Community Development Corporation
Madison Park Development Corporation
Main South Community Development Corporation

Maloney Properties
MassNAHRO
Metro West Collaborative Development
Mission Hill Neighborhood Housing Services
NeighborWorks Housing Solutions
New Vue Communities
Neighborhood of Affordable Housing (NOAH)
North Shore Community Development Corporation
One Holyoke Community Development Corporation
Peabody Properties
Pennrose LLC
Planning Office for Urban Affairs
Preservation of Affordable Housing (POAH)
Somerville Community Corporation
Southwest Boston Community Development Corporation
Spring Meadow Association of Responsible Tenants, Inc.
Standard Communities
The Community Builders
The Neighborhood Developers
The NHP Foundation
Trinity Financial
Urban Edge
Victory Programs, Inc.
WATCH CDC
Way Finders
Winn Companies
Worcester Common Ground

